

FADSA (Florida Adult Day Services Association)

This comprehensive package outlines the essence of FADSA, its geographical reach, the beneficiaries of our services, the compelling reasons to sponsor FADSA, and the tangible benefits your organization can reap through sponsorship.

What is Florida Adult Day Services Association (FADSA)?

FADSA is a non-profit organization committed to enhancing the quality of life for elderly and disabled adults in the state of Florida. Our mission revolves around providing essential support, advocacy, and resources to adult day service providers, caregivers, and the individuals they serve. FADSA acts as a catalyst in improving the overall well-being of seniors and adults with disabilities by facilitating access to affordable, top-tier care services.

Where does FADSA Operate?

FADSA's influence extends across the entire state of Florida. We have cultivated a robust network of members, organizations, service providers, and caregivers, ensuring our impact reaches both urban and rural areas. This widespread presence guarantees that elderly and disabled adults throughout Florida have equitable access to vital care services.
